DELLA
CULTURA

JULY 20, 2022

h. 11:30-12:30 CEST

The webinar aims to give an introductory overview of the new European Bauhaus and start a debate on the active role that cultural heritage plays in the green transition.

In particular, the webinar will show the results of the STiCH-Sustainability Tools in Cultural Heritage project, which proposes tools to help operators in the sector make informed choices about the impact that actions to protect and enhance cultural heritage can have on the fight against climate change.

The webinar is co-organised by the two Grant Offices (GO) of the Italian National Research Council-Institute of Heritage Sciences (CNR ISPC) and the Italian Ministry of Culture (MiC).

Working languages: Italian and English

To participate, you must register at the event by and no later than the 18th of July 2022.
